Group of Companies

Welcome

Welcome to the GW4 Careers Fair, Shanghai 2016. The event is designed to enable you to meet with top graduate employers based in China and find out more about the opportunities they have to offer. We are also hosting a series of workshops to help you improve your employability skills - information about these sessions will be sent separately once the final schedule has been confirmed.

Don't forget to update your CV/resume and be sure to bring enough printed copies of your CV for each employer that you wish to speak to. It is also important to ensure that your CV is up-to-date and is formatted in a standardised format.

Please also make sure you bring a copy of your EventBrite ticket and your university student card as you will not be admitted to the event without these items.

Representatives from all four of the Universities' Careers Services will be at the Fair. Come and talk to us if you have any questions.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Abercrombie and Fitch

Company website address for recruitment

<http://www.anfcareers.com/>

Company description

Abercrombie & Fitch Co. is a leading global specialty retailer of high-quality, casual apparel for men, women and kids with an active, youthful lifestyle under its Abercrombie & Fitch, Abercrombie Kids, and Hollister Co. brands. A&F was founded in 1892 and is based in New Albany, Ohio. A&F sells merchandise through retail stores in the United States, Canada, Europe, Asia, Mexico, and the Middle East.

The Manager in Training (MIT) program is a blended-learning, multi week program focused on immersing a manager in all aspects involved in managing a multi-million dollar business for Abercrombie & Fitch. Training takes place in our domestic and international store locations. Each week the program focuses on a different aspect of running the business. The program trains the MIT on the necessary principles of management including creating the best in-store experience, recruiting, diversity, human resources, store operations, and visual merchandising. The program is structured and provides the MIT with daily and weekly feedback from the Store Manager and District Manager. The MIT completes daily readings and exercises, experiences and learns through on the job training, and completes weekly assignments. The MIT must successfully complete the training program to be moved on into an Assistant Manager role.

Successful completion of this program is the first step for leadership. At Abercrombie & Fitch, we strongly advocate a philosophy of promotion from within. All of our District Managers, Regional Managers, Directors - even the Senior Vice President of Stores- have gone through the MIT program. With the growth of the company domestically and internationally, career opportunities for an MIT have never been better.
