

University of Bristol Theatre Collection

The Theatre Collection cares for many items that reflect how people think about art, culture and society through time. It also works with the cultural and creative industries to foster new ways of thinking and encourage innovative artistic and scholarly practice.

Special Collections & Archives (SCOLAR), Cardiff University

500 years of the Bible, from banned editions to Authorized versions, and major political tract collections, from the English Civil War, up to Welsh nationalism.

University of Exeter Heritage Collections

The Syon Abbey community of Bridgettine nuns were unusual in being able to trace an unbroken tradition from 2012 right back to their Abbey's foundation at Isleworth in Middlesex in 1415. The Syon Abbey Collection includes medieval and modern manuscripts together with the community's historical library and archive, dating back to the 16th century.

